LONDON, Oct. 30.—Foreign Minister Sir Samuel Hoare today publicly admitted that "several governments have recently been considering the possibilities of a peaceful settlement (of the Italo-Ethiopian war) and that the British and French governments have been exchanging views seeking a basis for future negotiations."

This is "common knowledge," Sir Samuel said. He was addressing a conservative party meeting in Chelsea, and thus placed the first official stamp on reports of the talks, said not yet to have reached the
"negotiation" stage.

Discuss Details.
"In order that we should fully understand each others' views," continued Sir Samuel, "the head of the Abyssinian department of the foreign office has been in Paris discussing a number of complicated details with officials of the French foreign office."

Replying to a question from the audience, Sir Samuel said concerning the proposed British increase in defensive strength:

ADDIS ABABA, Oct. 30.—Events of recent months again have laid the key to Europe's fate in the hands of Chancellor Adolf Hitler of Germany.

Berlin, taking advantage of East African developments, now is study-which she would agree to take part in sanctions against Italy. International News Service was reliably informed today.

The price for Germany's taking sides against Italy would be the return of Tanganyika, African territory taken from Germany after the war, from Britain.

ASMARA, Eritrea, Oct. 30.—
Harassed by swift-moving bands of Abyssinian guerilla warriors, Italian columns on the northern front pressed on towards Makale today, while Ethiopian troops moved into that town with the apparent intention of defending it.

Troops in the southeast also moved up, and from the little known war sector on the extreme northeastern frontier drifted the news that a month-long battle there continues unabated.

Slow Advance.
There is something eerie about the slow advance of the Italian northern army through the wild mountain country in pursuit of an intangible foe.

No great body of the enemy is being encountered in the sky-high Entiso country.

Only darting, scattering bands of Abyssinians are met with, and Italian artillery is proving of little use against them.

The double column that is stretching down towards Makale in preparation for the general drive took up advanced stations, fortifying the new positions.

Airplanes, reconnoitering daily over the new objective, brought bad word today that Makale was occupied over the week-end by Abyssinian troops dispatched by the central government, and the Abyssin-ians were now ensconced in the town with machine guns and rifles.

Speed Up Plans To End Direct Relief

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Pouring funds into the WPA at an average of $3,676,988 a day cash and $147,293,567 a day in value of projects approved, the administration today looked to Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator, to make good on his pledge to end direct relief during November.

Following White House conferences of President Roosevelt with Hopkins and PWA Administrator
Harold L. Ickes, Hopkins asserted that all of the employable heads of families on relief rolls will be at work before the end of next month, and that federal relief allotments
to states would end.

Road Work Leads
The big "bulge" in employment is under way, the WPA administrator said, and will reach its peak in the next two weeks.

One of the chief methods of employment, farm-to-market road improvements, is getting under way, Hopkins said. This will provide work for hundreds of thousands from the relief rolls.
While the relief, or work relief, program is expected to form the biggest item in the next budget,
Hopkins said that no definite plans had been made, and that the future program will be up to Congress.
With the end of direct relief allotments to states next month, it will be up to the states to take care of the unemployed and others on relief after WPA jobs are filled. Hopkins said that the states have approximately $500,000,000 in their treasuries for this purpose,

A New Day Is Come

A new day is come! Our community has spoken right from its great big heart. The powerful protecting arms of our Jameson Memorial Hospital reach out to us all with new strength to guard us from the hazards of health. David Jameson still lives with us.

It is too soon to estimate the thousands who have hoped and worked with me—too early to estimate by how much our effort has been rewarded beyond our goal. We expressed our objective in terms of dollars—$40,000. We attained our goal because of pennies as well as dollars from the hearts of our citizens.

For me there is rich reward. My lifetime of unrelenting faith in my fellow citizens again is justified. I want to share this reward with all my fellow citizens—those who have worked, those who have subscribed, even those who have doubted.

Have faith in your fellow men and women of our New Castle Community and A NEW DAY IS COME—for us all.

In words that were backed up by financial pledges, New

Tuesday night October 29
that it wanted the Jameson Memorial Hospital kept open every hour of the year.
At the dinner meeting of the workers held in The Castle-

067.81 was reported, with five or six thousand dollars in pledges said to be coming in yet. A total of $40,000 was asked for the hospital to keep it free from deficit for the next two years.

It was a remarkable campaign in more ways than one. The usual daily meetings with attending persons and solicitation were missing.
Oratory was in a falling market but hard work hit a new high. The campaign was centered around the half hour's time between 9 and 9:30, Tuesday morning when the sign-up period was on and from the returns the signing up was a major sport in every part of the city.

SAND FROM DESERT PARALYZES TRAFFIC

By EDWARD HUNTER
International News Service Staff Correspondent.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 30.—Pitching and lurching perilously close to cargo ships laden with explosives, the British cruiser Devonshire, torn from her moorings by a mile-a-minute gale, today was being held in doubtful security against the breakwater by puffing destroyers and tugs.

Within a few yards of the steamer Bellerophon, loaded with naval supplies, the Devonshire, its holds packed with shells and torpedoes, was being hammered against the stone and concrete sea wall.

Razor-like sand swept in from the desert by the blast paralyzed traffic in the artificial harbor, crowded with British fighting ships and merchant vessels.

With their crews blinded by the sand, the gus and small warships strained and pushed at the Devonshire, but could do no more than hold it fairly fast to the breakwater.

Departure of the Dollar liner President Monroe, carrying scores of American passengers, was delayed for hours.

There will be a production of band music in line. The American Legion band will be out, the Franklin Junior high school band, the Slippery Rock Drum and Bugle Corps, the Ellwood City Drum and Bugle Corps, the Sons of Veterans Drum and Bugle Corps, and the Croton band will all be in line with their martial airs and music will be found in every division.

Form At 7:30 O'clock

All mummies, bands, floats and cars that are to be in the parade are asked to be at the point of formation at 7:30 in order that the parade may get under way on time at 8 o'clock. Preceding the line will be a sound car urging spectators not to crowd the cartway. Motor cycle police will head the line of march with a motor cycle squad of some twenty machines following them. The judges will come next in cars that will haul them to Cascade Park. Then Chairman Carl W.

Haufler, and the co-masters Bart Richards and B. N. Hook and aides. Five divisions will make up the parade with a band at the head of each division. The division aides are C. C. Potter, first division; Allen Cartwright, second division; Edward Davenport, third division; C. Russell Brenner, fourth division and Edward Millison, fifth division.

Chief of Police John F. Haven is co-operating in a splendid manner in the parade arrangements. He will have "No Parking" signs on the west side of East Washington street from West avenue to Cascade Park, and will also have officers stationed at strategic points to overcome any congestion.

Motorists who have to use East Washington street tonight are asked to be as expeditious as possible in getting through and in getting from downtown to the Cascade Park district it is suggested that they use Cascade street if possible.

The world and his girl friend is invited to the East Side Halloween celebration tonight. No one is barred because of the location of their residence and prizes will be awarded on the merit of costumes without regard to residence.

Following the awarding of prizes at Cascade Park, a Halloween ball will be held in the dance pavilion in the park. This will start somewhere around 9:30 it is anticipated.

Pennsy Expects Better Business

Will Build 10,000 New Freight Cars Of Various Types

PLAN TO EXPEND NEAR $30,000,000

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—To meet the demands of anticipated better business, Pennsylvania railroad today was completing plans to build 10,000 new freight cars of various types and to modernize 1000 additional cars at a cost of approximately $30,000,000.

Representing one of the most important and extensive car-building programs ever undertaken by the railroad, the construction order is expected to stimulate the Pennsylvania steel market and add materially to employment.

Plans Being Made

Definite plans for the new equipment are nearing conclusion and announcement will be made later. The railroad reported, as to the types of cars to be built and places of construction. Part of the 10,000 new cars will be built in the company's shops at Altoona, at Pottsville, and at Enola, near Harrisburg. The remainder will be constructed in outside building plants.

"The railroad is being prepared for such increased volume of business as may be expected to develop with the return of better times, thus anticipating the demands of industry and commerce as well as stimulating production and employment," said M. W. Clement, president of the railroad.

Intensive Hunt Under Way In Philadelphia For Death Drivers

HIT AND RUN DRIVE STARTS

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—Spurred by charges Philadelphia streets are the most dangerous in the nation, authorities today launched an intensive search for two hit-and-run motorists whose speeding cars struck and killed pedestrians here within the last 24 hours.

The latest victim was Miss Katherine Kelly, pretty 19-year-old orphan, whose mangled body was carried on the radiator of a speeding automobile for more than 300 yards before it dropped to the street as the driver swung the car around a corner.

A few hours previous to Miss Kelly's death Patrick Moran, 65, the father of 10 children, was killed while walking to a coal yard where he had been employed for 49 years.

In one of the three other hit-and-run accidents here today, an unidentified man was injured so gravely that doctors fear he may not recover.

The man was described as an American, 27 years old, six feet tall and of slim build. He wore a brown zipper sweater with a leather bottom. He also wore a soft brown hat, the rim of which had been trimmed.

The man was seen by different customers who were in the place shortly after midnight but left before the place was robbed. Should he be captured it is believed he can be identified.

WORKERS REPORT OVE $42,000 IN ONE DAY DRIVE

A Secretary Robert L. Meermans the dinner was served.

At the conclusion of the dinner Fred L. Rentz, chairman of the board of directors expressed his gratitude at the splendid showing of block captains and expressed the hope that when the roll was called the total would show that the hospital had enough pledges to carry on. He then introduced Bert Wells who has handled the campaign.

Mr. Wells was brief also. He explained that advance gifts had been allocated to the block leaders in the district where the gifts had been made and then called the roll of the block chairmen. As the reports increased it became apparent that the goal of $40,000 would be almost reached if it was not surpassed. A little later several large contributions were announced and the total of $42,067.91 announced. The announcement broke the tension which was known that their efforts had been crowned with success. For a few moments a lot of dignified men and women engaged in a set of vocal calisthenics that would fit a football game but were most appropriate for the closing of the campaign.

More Short Speeches

The result of the campaign, pleasing as it was to the chairman, was almost much at one time. After Mr. Wells had announced the impressive total, Mr. Rentz arose, ostensibly for the purpose of thanking the workers. The situation was too much for him and the words refused to come. As an address it was non-existent, but as a genuine gesture of appreciation nothing could have been added to improve upon it.

Mr. Wells then expressed his appreciation of the fine work that had been turned in and called upon Dr. W. W. Bissell, medical director of the hospital to say something. Dr. Bissell was still a bit dazed from the startling success of it all and responded by saying, "In behalf of the poor people of New Castle I thank you."

There never was a campaign in New Castle quite like the one just finished by the Jameson Memorial Hospital workers. It demonstrated what could be done when a group of serious minded people is brought together with a common purpose in view. It was a remarkable example of community spirit and emphasized again that New Castle will respond to need when the need is shown.

Details of the report of the workers will be given in Thursday's News.

HITLER SEEN HOLDING KEY TO EUROPE'S FATE

Britain would pay this price, but Berlin is ready to bargain and, in a way, to threaten.

Berlin is studying the possibility, it was learned, of returning to membership in the League of Nations in the course of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute if properly compensated.

Against this prospect lay the possible threat. It was pointed out here that Premier Mussolini in desperation might offer Hitler Austria, and perhaps the South Tyrol. By "offer" is meant the withdrawal of the strong opposition Italy has shown in the past to all German moves in this direction.

Thus Hitler is in a position to play on either side in this East African game.

"This ship was been experienced by delay which has been experienced in the building program," Admiral Standley said. "Some of it was due to labor troubles, but most of it was due to the fact our yards were unable to keep up with the program we laid down."

"This was due to the fact we have not been building any ships for 13 years. We predicted our program on the navy yards have found themselves unable to keep up with because they have become unaccustomed to building these ships."

Peace Hopes Brighten

Geneva, Oct. 30.—Hopes for peace brightened today as the Italian legation here announced it was "almost certain" Baron Pompeo Aloisi would arrive here to represent Italy during talks scheduled for the latter part of the week.

Baron Aloisi would be ready to receive any peace "suggestion" British Foreign Minister Sir Samuel Hoare, or French Premier Pierre Laval might wish to make personally.

ENGAGEMENT NEWS REVEALED AT PARTY

The autumn season brings in time many forms of festivities that are always anticipated with enthusiasm, and in keeping with the times, Miss Mabel Kearsie of English avenue entertained members of the Westminster Guild of the Central Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at a masquerade party, that proved a medium of making known her engagement to Clyde Davidson, and making the group by complete surprise.

Nine special guests shared the program of the evening, and in the various games entered into, Gertrude Fry and Ruth Forrest were fortunate winners of lovely prizes. The award for the cleverest costume went to Martha Swisher.

When lunch time arrived, the hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Arthur Kearsie, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Kearsie. The unique favors, of a Halloween nature, concealed tiny capsules that held a note, which read "Mabel and Clyde—November 21". Conversation centered on the hostess' wedding plans, when she announced they plan to make their home in Franklin, Pa. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kearsie of this city, and the groom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Davidson of Franklin, Pa., and formerly of New Castle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Nessle of this city, who will leave soon for Florida, again graced the role of honor Tuesday evening, when they were entertained by the former's brother, B. E. Nessle, at a dinner party in his home on the East Brook road.

The dining table was attractively arranged in the Halloween motif, combined with autumnal appointments, the center being adorned with a cluster of baby-mums. Following the serving of a sumptuous menu, the guests, numbering ten, enjoyed the remaining hours with games and music. Mrs. Nessle carried home the prize.

NO MORE "MEDDLING"

SECRETARY of Commerce Roper's statement to the effect that there is to be no more federal "meddling" with business strengthens the hope that the government's economic "breathing spell" is going to be maintained.

And well it may be. Business unquestionably has been suffering from an over-dose of bureaucratic interference. The time has come to give existing industrial and commercial organizations a fair chance to regain their own stability.

This does not mean that rational control may not be exercised with a view to protection against unscrupulous exploitation and piracy. But it does mean that there should be a minimum—indeed, a complete absence—of the kind of governmental restraint that scares off capital investments and frightens business men into operating on a hand-to-mouth basis lest some unforeseen and unpredictable extension of administrative authority shall stand in the way of profit-making in accordance with the normal standards of American economic life.

THE MODERN GENII

The Evil Genii, according to Arabian mythology, were the offspring of fire. They took form from flame and smoke and appeared as huge serpents, hideous giants or monsters, to wreak destruction for the Suleyman kings, after which they again became invisible.

Carbon monoxide, the deadly gas from the automobile exhaust, is the invisible killer of today, which, like the Evil Genii of old, causes great waste of human life, mainly among thoughtless motorists.

Most cases occur on cold mornings when drivers, in warming up their engines leave garage doors and windows closed. The gas strikes with little or no warning and in a very few minutes death results.

Also many cases occur in winter driving in closed cars when, due to a defective exhaust, the gas seeps up into the car. It is tasteless, odorless and invisible and as deadly as any war gas ever invented.

During the last few years there have been around 600 carbon-monoxide deaths annually. This figure represents five times as many deaths as occurred ten years ago from this cause. Beware this insidious killer!

INDIAN SUMMER?

We will not be so rash as to hazard the belief that we are now in the midst of Indian summer. The time of the arrival of this brief season of warm, hazy, autumnal weather has long been involved in controversy and every definite statement that it has appeared, regardless of the time, is challenged by those who pretend to greater knowledge of the subject than the Indians themselves possessed.

The New England tribes believed this summer to be caused by a wind blowing from their great god of the Southwest, who sent them their maize, beans and other blessings and cared for the souls of their dead. But they never expected the season's advent at any definite time. They waited patiently and, when it came, often after heavy frosts or snow flurries, they welcomed it.

We should at least be as philosophical in the matter as they and should refrain from quibbling over the question of whether Indian summer has come and gone, whether it is here at present or is still on its way. Quite possibly we are even now enjoying its delights of warmth and haze and radiant beauty on every hillside and in the valleys and even along the city streets. But whether this is Indian summer or something else again is unimportant so long as its appeal remains undiminished.

FEDERAL PRISON POPULATION GROWS

An increase in population usually is viewed as somewhat of an accomplishment. But from one viewpoint, no reason for pride will be found in the all-time high record established this year in federal prison population.

This population is increasing so rapidly that it is expected the Department of Justice will need additional space for the prisoners. On July 19 there was a total of 15,000 inmates in United States prisons, reformatories and camps, and the number is steadily climbing.

To gain a comprehensive mental picture of the extent of law breaking in this country one must consider that the federal prison population is small as compared with the total in other penal institutions. That is the deplorable angle of the situation.

The encouraging part is to be found in the activity of the federal law enforcement officials who are rounding up the violators and placing them where their criminal tendencies will be curbed, at least for some time.

If other law enforcement agents will match the activity of the federal officers there will be another upward trend in prison population, which eventually will be followed by a marked decrease, when law breakers are made to realize that their violations will bring inevitable penalties.

NEWSDOM'S POLL

Newsdom, a trade publication, has presented final figures of its 1935 "New Deal" poll of American newspapers, which disclose a heavy reversal of opinion on the Roosevelt policies and practices.

The poll shows that more than one-fourth of the nation's Democratic papers are now against the administration, whereas in 1934 only 14.7 per cent were so opposed. This represents a loss of administration support to the extent of better than 11 per cent of its own party organs.

In 1934, nearly 21 per cent of the country's Republican papers were supporting the "New Deal." This year, they total only 12 per cent—an administration loss of 12 per cent.

Last year the president had the hearty support of 56.3 per cent of the nation's independent papers. In 1935, this support has been cut to 40 per cent—an administration loss in this division of 16.3 per cent.

For all papers combined, in 1934, the president was supported by 66.6 per cent of all papers, and was opposed by 33.4 per cent. Today, 67.7 per cent are in opposition, and only 32.3 per cent are supporting him.

In 1934, 2,025 papers answered Newsdom's questionnaire. In 1935, the total was 2,306. The population area of the papers responding this year was in excess of 52 million, and the gross circulation of the responding newspapers is 14,474,000.

The "yes" and "no" division of the circulation—assigning half of the 50-50 papers to each side—is 5,299,000 "yes" and 9,175,000 "no." The people of the United States could be divided less unequally than 9 to 5 and still prove that the New Deal has been weighed in the balances and found wanting.

It is frequently true that when an opinion-trend first gets under way, the press's position may be somewhat in advance of general public sentiment. Yet it is equally well known that the press in the country does very decidedly reflect public sentiment.

Two More New Graves.
Uncle Sam And Wild Geese.
Government Railroads?
Nine Words From Mussolini.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

THE BODY of "Dutch Schultz" Flegenheimer, "darkly, by dead of night," was carried out of New York for burial at 3 in the morning.

Three hours later two more gangsters were shot down in the big city. They had no time to "draw."

"Stop, I'm the law; put 'em up," said one of two killers.

Up went four hands; the other killer said:

"Yeah, that's them; let 'em have it."

Two small time gangsters will probably need new graves. Police say the wounded, named Pegno and Garaldo, "were shot for being mixed up in recent killings, or perhaps for ordinary 'squealing'."

The gangsters' supreme court is always in session.

Unable to rise from the swift current, and unlike small, light ducks that habitually balance themselves and feed at the edge of the falls, the heavy geese could not deal with the rushing water.

Many were swept to death, some were shot by permission of the game warden. Finally, the great flock rose and flew southward.

THE DOWNFALL OF SNIKER AND SNEER

Let me tell you the tale of Snicker and Sneer

And the story I tell you may seem passing queer—

But Snicker and Sneer watched the Lord make the earth.

And they rocked all creation with skeptical mirth.

For Sneer was malicious and given to jeering.

And Snicker, the skeptic, was given to sneering.

When the Lord went to work on the making of Man

They laughed and they howled, "Do you think that you can

Make anything good out of THAT

Do you honestly hope to arrive at perfection?"

For Sneer was a guy with a terrible hate on,

And Snicker was friendly with old Father Satan.

But the Lord looked at Sneer and he gave him a wink

And he smiled upon Snicker and said, "If you think

I'm expecting perfection in Man you're quite wrong.

For the task that I'll give him is thorny and long."

So, Snicker, keep sneering! and Sneer keep sneaking.

And never swear off your cantankerous bickering.

"And you'll help me to finish the work I began—

Because you are part of my infinite plan.

And I hope you will snicker and sneer all you can

And make life a trial for my little man.

He'll be needing you, Snicker and you, too, my Sneer,

To keep life from seeming all skittles and beer."

So the good Lord chuckled and turned him away.

Leaving Snicker and Sneer and young Adam that day.

Six days he had toiled, on the seventh he had toiled, on the

And left his young man by those friends to be tested.

So sneer went to work with his laughter and jeer,

And whatever Man did, Snicker labeled it queer.

Thus our little Man learned to depend on himself.

And to make a tough skin of his tender young pelf.

And it worked out precisely as He had decided—

Man worked all the more, the more they derided.

And Snicker and Sneer served the Lord with their mirth

By making his Man halfway fit for His earth.

A LITTLE WORLD

Two astronauts at the San Jose, California, observatory, recently reported seeing the star Nova Hercules burst into two parts.

Astronomers have computed the distance between the earth and Nova Hercules to be about 6,450,000,000,000 miles.

Since light rays travel 186,325 miles a second, it would take 1,000 years for light to travel from that far-off star to the earth. Which means, according to the calculations of these astronomers that the light of Nova Hercules occurred along about 900 A. D., and is just coming into view on this planet now.

This gives the ordinary layman some idea of distances in the universe.

About 15 minutes after leaving the meeting at the Castleton last night he went to the First U. P. church where the Rotary club was in a social session. In crossing the street on account of the leaves he stepped into a gutter and fell flat on the ground. The first thing he thought of was being taken to the hospital. No injury was done, but it would have been a splendid had he been taken to the hospital that soon after the successful money raising meeting.

The World At A Glance

Say Tories Caused Scares.
Are Accused By Opponents.
May Use Same Tactics Here.

Central Press

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Tory politicians in England are being accused of stirring up not only an Italian war scare, but a German one—in order to regain power for six more years.

The Stanley Baldwin government is being denounced by its political opponents in England in startling fashion.

With one year still to go prior to the end of the present six-year term of parliament, the Conservatives seized upon the war scare as a good time to take a chance on a general election now. With emotionism running high—due to speeches calling for a vote of the "defense" of England—the Conservatives count on snatching six more years of power.

To wait till next year might mean the bringing up of unpleasant domestic issues.

Thus, if the Conservatives are returned, it will be on a war-scare issue.

They are expected to win, and retain their hold on parliament, although with the loss of a considerable number of seats.

Worst than their election "war scare" issue is the fact that they are embarking Britain on the largest peacetime armament program in the history of the nation. This move is likely to create a naval race that may have "no limits."

A PAPER'S OPINION
How the Liberals of England feel over the tactics of the Tories may be gathered by this editorial expression of the Manchester Guardian:

"The cabinet's decision to have an election, next month (November 14) seems to be a piece of sharp practice. One does not know which to condemn the most—the levity with which the cabinet plunged into an election in the middle of a grave international crisis, or the effrontery of the arguments used to excuse it."

"Why does the government want an election now in preference to one in the spring or early summer of next year? It cannot be that it lacks a parliamentary majority for anything it does. It has now the biggest majority any party has had in modern times, and whatever happens it will have a smaller majority in the next parliament. It cannot be that it lacks support for the international policy it is pursuing at Geneva. Only on Wednesday the Times was congratulating us all on our unanimity in standing 'behind the government while it pursues a policy which is incontestably national.'"

"And has not the Labor party shed its leader in order to support that policy?"

"It cannot be, as it pretended, that a mandate is needed for rearmament. With its present majority there is, unhappily, no panic expenditure so great that it will not be docilely accepted by the automatic votes of the Tory big battalions."

"What, then, is the reason?"

"The answer is simple. The government, like the Tory government of 1900, like the Coalition governments of 1918 and 1931 (both Tory-riden), seeks a snap election. Liberals and Labor are caught at a disadvantage because they have put their loyalty to the principles of wise international policy first and political opportunism second. The government chooses to attempt to exploit this for its own ends."

A "JINGO" ELECTION
The Manchester Guardian continues:

"It will be a bad election, fought almost inevitably on Jingo cries. The choice of dates makes it plain that the government will shrink commitments on all problems of constructive domestic policy. The

You aren't supposing of course that you're in the sun, and that there isn't a fire going inside. Outside, infrared rays penetrate the body and warm it. That's why you've often stepped indoors and said, "It's warmer outside than it is in here."

Five Negro CCC Workers Jailed Following Riot In Mess Hall

(International News Service) BRADFORD, Pa., Oct. 30.—Five Negro CCC workers were under suspended sentences following a riot on the mess hall at the Sugar Run civilian conservation corps camp which ended in a mild riot because a worker had received an extra-duty assignment.

The workers were said to be part of a group that had made an agreement among themselves if any one "got in trouble," all the others "would pitch in and help."

Captain James G. Cadman, head of the camp, indicated the five imprisoned men will be dishonorably discharged after completing their 10-day sentences.

State troopers were called to quell the disorder.

State Gets Check For Million From Electric Concern

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—The state deposited a $1,000,000 check today from the Pennsylvania Power & Light Company, of Central Pennsylvania, representing advance payment on taxes which will be due next spring.

The payment is the largest yet received under the Owlett Acts passed by the legislature providing a four per cent discount for advance payments of taxes, a device adopted to speed funds into a state treasury which faced extraordinarily heavy bills and light income during the first year of the biennium.

Of the money, $665,000 went to the general fund to be applied on current bills and the remainder was earmarked for relief.

Rotary Party Held At Church

Hallowe'en Holiday Affair Is Shared By Wives Of Clubmen

The gay Hallowe'en spirit prevailed last night as members of the Rotary Club and their wives and other guests gathered in the assembly hall of the First U. P. church, Glenmore boulevard, for their customary holiday party. Nearly 100 attended.

A chicken dinner, served by the ladies of the church, opened the festivities — and an entertaining "amateur night" conducted by "Major Blows" in the person of Rotarian DeLace Cole, followed by a one-act play, furnished the evening's merriment.

As the major presented them, the performers took the stage. Participants included Mrs. Stanley Reese, Mrs. Gomer Emery, B. H. Kannenberg, Rex Patch, Welty Rugh, Thomas Moore, Thomas Flanagan, Lauren Thayer and Ray F. Hall. Accompanists for the singers were Mrs. J. P. Rentz and Albert Taylor.

The one-act skit, "Here We Are," was given by Miss Marion Rose Randall and Dudley M. Arnold.

The church hall was appropriately adorned in Hallowe'en decorations for the evening.

Orville E. Flora, chairman of the club's entertainment committee, and his committee members were in charge.

EBERHART WILL ADDRESS CLUBS

Special Representative Of FHA To Speak To Service Club Members

Hon. A. O. Eberhart, former governor of Minnesota, now special representative of the Federal Housing Administration, of Washington, D. C., will speak to the members of the service clubs and other outstanding business leaders under the auspices of the New Castle Lions Club in the Castleton Hotel at noon, Tuesday, November 5. It is expected a very large number will be in attendance at the Kiwanis Club will join the Lions Club on this occasion and a large number from the Rotary Club will also attend together with the directors of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce, bankers, manufacturers, those interested in materials in the building trades, and other prominent citizens.

Governor Eberhart was secured to speak in New Castle on November 5 by the New Castle Chamber of Commerce at the request of the Lions Club. He spoke here about a year ago.

Governor Eberhart will use as the title of his address "Dollars and Sense of the National Housing Act."

AS THE planes roared, Mussolini, appearing on a balcony, with 70,000 Italians cheering wildly, said just nine words.

"We initiate with the same courage the fourteenth year."

For the time Mussolini has adopted the late Theodore Roosevelt's motto, "Not words, but deeds."

WHEN THE English wanted to convince Cetaaway, King of the Zulus, that it was useless for him to fight England or try to retain his lands, they took him for a trip to London, showed him big battle-ships.

He looked around, thoughtful, went home and "died of discouragement." Visitors from other countries looking at Mussolini's air display must also have been thoughtful.

MUSSOLINI, apparently, has decided that with Britain determined to keep him out of Ethiopia and France mildly acquiescing, the rest of the talking should be done with guns and bombs. That kind of proceeding energetically, Ethiopians abandoning towns as the Italian airplanes and tanks proceed.

Ethiopians are said to have shot down one Italian plane and its crew of three. The fate of the crew has not been announced.

GERMANY is represented in Ethiopia by competent military observers who learned a good deal in the big war.

They say Italy should "allow Ethiopians to concentrate as many men as possible in the Adowa-Adigrat-Makale sector then surround the defenders with tanks and machine guns and, from the air, annihilate them."

ITALIAN commanders in Ethiopia send greetings to Mussolini on the beginning of his fourteenth year of leadership; all report freshly conquered Ethiopian territory. Men of the "October twenty-eighth" Black-shirt Division erect a statue of Mussolini facing the foe, needless to say, beyond Adigrat.

The young Duke of Bergamo, cousin of Italy's king, is in the fighting. Haile Selassie has not yet gone to the front, but promises to go soon and "shed my blood with yours."

That is not the custom of Europe, where practically all rulers, in the big war, stayed far from the trenches.

IN MOSCOW, a man convicted of stealing bluing from the state trust and selling it to speculators was sentenced to death, seven others went to concentration camps.

In Ethiopia, they would only cut off the hand of a thief for stealing bluing, if they had any bluing.

I then wrapped it in colored cellophane and presented it to the bride-to-be. It made a very practical, cheap and helpful gift."

Games and songs were enjoyed, later winding up with an amateur hour. Prize performances were given by Janet Foreman and Bettie James. At a later time refreshments were served by the Holland Patrol.

TROOP 6

Girl Scout Troop No. 6 enjoyed a Halloween party Saturday, instead of their regular meeting. While taffy was being made for "candy-ing" apples, Miss Reis told an interesting story. Sandwiches and cider were served with the apples, and the remaining taffy was pulled.

With a bullet wound in his abdomen, Rowe was given a "50-50" chance to live by physicians.

Rowe was allegedly attacked by the two, both on parole from the Mansfield reformatory, when he questioned them about a recent hold-up.

Nazdan was declared insane in 1930, but was discharged as cured later by the bureau of juvenile research at Columbus. Police said both have long criminal records.

Further Plans For Armistice Day Observance

Program For Day Has Virtually Been Completed,
Committees Reveal

ORGANIZATIONS ASKED TO HELP

Plans for the observance of Armistice Day have virtually been completed, general chairman Orville Potter revealed, following a meeting of the general committee which took place last evening in the Legion Home.

Plans call for a parade of World War veterans and their friends, from the Legion Home over the principal streets in the downtown section, ending at Carnegie auditorium, where the formal program will take place.

Plan Church Service
The parade will pause at the Diamond at 11 o'clock, the Armistice hour, where a ceremony will take place, after which it will proceed to the auditorium for the closing program, when Dr. John J. McIlvaine will deliver the address.

On Sunday evening, prior to Armistice Day, members of the American Legion and their friends will go to the Central Christian church, on Long avenue, where they will listen to an address appropriate to the occasion from their chaplain, Rev. Charles Warren Johnston.

Two events have been arranged for the evening of Armistice Day. The first will be the annual Armistice Day dinner for World War veterans, which will take place at the Castleton, Walter Dietterle is chairman for this year and has arranged for a speaker, and program. The dinner will start at 6 o'clock, and reservations may be made with him, or members of the committee, or by leaving word at the Legion Home.

The second event of interest will be a concert by the American Legion Junior band in the high school auditorium. This will be free to the public, and will be the first public concert that the new band has given, although it has appeared before the citizens of New Castle on a number of occasions. The band is directed by Joe F. Replogle, director of music at the Senior high school.

Birthday Party At Browne Hall

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Oct. 30.—Following its annual custom of monthly birthday dinners, Browne Hall, freshman girls' dormitory at Westminster College, was host Monday night to Dean Mary E. Turner, in celebration of her birthday.

The Browne Hall custom is to celebrate all girls' birthdays born in October some time during that month, when the girls eat formally together with a birthday cake and an informal party in the lounge following. Each month follows the same plan.

Guests attending Dean Turner's birthday party were Dean and Mrs. Alex C. Burr. Six October-born freshmen girls also celebrated with the party.

On Court House Hill

Frank Nocera, administrator in the estate of the late Henry Nocera, has presented a petition to court for discharge as administrator, having filed his final account. November 25 was fixed as a date for hearing.

In order that persons who have been unable to get to his office in daytime may have an opportunity at night, County Treasurer, William O. Pitts announced that his office will be kept open on Thursday evening of this week until 9 o'clock. Thursday is the last day to pay county taxes at face, and also the last day for taking advantage of the rebate law on delinquent taxes. Hunting licenses will also be issued on Thursday night.

Take a lesson from the squirrel. To be more specific, the squirrels on the court house lawn. They have a hunch that winter is on the way and they are now preparing for it by laying up nuts. The nuts are provided by court house employees. One of the squirrels is so tame that it will come into open windows. Registration Clerk, Thomas Edmunds laid a handful of hickory nuts on his desk this morning. He opened a window. Pretty soon a little round head and a pair of bright eyes appeared on the window sill. A hasty glance about and the squirrel hopped into the room, up on the desk and took a nut. It scampered over across the Boyles lot with it and buried it underneath a bush. Pretty soon it was back for another nut, and kept the trips up until all the nuts were buried. The squirrel is wise. It looks ahead. What a pity we can't all be squirrels.

If you are killed while a passenger in an airplane, your heirs will be entitled to double indemnity on your insurance policy, according to a supreme court decision handed down at Washington. The case acted upon was an appeal brought by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York which protested paying Mary Noel Gregory of Augusta, Ark., the double indemnity feature of a $25,000 policy carried by her husband, killed in a crash while being flown to St. Louis. The policy provided the double indemnity should death occur as a result of "participation in aeronautics." The court held that a passenger was not a "participant."

Theft of automobiles are quite common, but did you ever hear of Attorneys for the "numbers" operators, whose paraphernalia was seized in the raids led by Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard, have filed in answers to the sheriff's petition in which he asks the court for an order as to what is to be done with the machines, furniture and other accessories in his hands. The operators ask that the sheriff be allowed to return their property. The answers are in behalf of 23 operators. The matter will be determined at a hearing.

The 13th annual convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women will be held at the Penn-Harris Hotel, Harrisburg, November 19-21. Formal call for the meeting has just been issued by the president, Mrs. George R. Hemphill, of Beaver Falls.

When the Ford Motor Company introduced this engine to the low-price field, it made one of its greatest contributions to modern, luxurious motoring with economy. But progress did not stop there. Styling, appointments and every other feature of the new Ford were made to match the quality of the V-8 engine.

Naval Arms Pact To Go Overboard

End Of Noble Experiment Will Be Seen At December Conference

UNITED STATES BEHIND ENGLAND

Central Press Washington Bureau 1900 S. street

By CHARLES P. STEWART

Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The international naval conference scheduled to begin in London in early December undoubtedly will see the end of a "noble experiment," begun in 1921, to keep world armaments down to reasonable proportions.

The idea originated with Charles Evan Hughes—secretary of state then.

It was under his auspices that the world's sea powers were invited to send representatives to Washington to discuss plans for ending races in warship building.

BRITAIN ENTHUSIASTIC

The most enthusiastic acceptance came from the British.

Britannia, as we know, for generations had been mistress of the oceans, but, at that juncture, she seemed about to lose this rulership to Uncle Samuel.

At the war's end, Uncle Sam was about her equal. Besides, he had several nearly-finished men-o-war on hand, which, finished, promised to make him decidedly her superior.

Financially flattened out by the war, she hadn't the resources to keep up with American competition.

This was the point at which Secretary Hughes offered not only to do no more building, but to scrap U. S. warships already nearly ready to take the water.

BARGAIN INDORSED

It was with tears of gratitude in their eyes that Britannia's representatives indorsed this bargain, which gave them more than they had believed imaginable—at least equality, when they had expected to have to accept inferiority.

They drove a hard bargain, at that. It was agreed that Britannia was to be permitted to finish her partially-constructed new warships; Uncle Sam must sink his—and he did so.

Moreover, certain post-war warship improvements were invented.

Britain claimed the right to take advantage of them, but denied Uncle Sam the right to adapt them to his vessels.

Still, thus far, the British nominally have adhered to the compact.

JAPAN DISSATISFIED

Japan wasn't so well satisfied.

It wanted equality with the U. S. and Britain, but simply hadn't the money to maintain it.

Consequently, the Mikado acquiesced in the 5-5-3 ratio—five, as a unit, for America; five for Britain; three for Japan; smaller units for France and Italy, which (then, at least) admitted that they were outclassed hopelessly from a financial standpoint.

Germany, in 1921-'22 didn't signify.

Britain, since then, has kept up to its naval quota—five.

Japan has kept up to its quota—three.

The United States has lagged. It was entitled to lag if it chose to do so; it didn't undertake to remain on a 5-5 basis with Britain or a 5-3 basis with Japan; all it promised was not to exceed the 5-5-3 basis.

At present the actual basis is something like five (Britain), three (U. S. A.) and three (Japan).

U. S. SAME AS JAPAN

In December, then, the real ratio will be, not 5-5-3 but 5-3-3, with the U. S. as one of the threes and Japan as the other.

And Britain and Japan will combine to keep it that way.

(Japan would like to be in the five-group but can't afford it. The U. S. can afford it, but will have to build like everything to catch up with Britain.)

The December conference, in short, will be a deadlock.

It will frazzle out into a maze of words. It won't appear to be a fizzle—but that's what it will be.

It will be the end of post-war pacificist endeavors.

High School Will Stage "Seventeen"
Tarkington's Classic Is Selected For Presentation On November 8

The senior high school classes in dramatics are putting the finishing touches on their first comedy of the year, a stage version of Booth Tarkington's classic, "Seventeen". The play will be presented in a public performance, Friday evening, November 8, under the able direction of Miss Clara Hartsuff. Miss Hartsuff's success with her student actors in the past will undoubtedly be repeated with this latest venture. "Seventeen" is particularly adapted to a high school cast. The hero is an engaging hobbled boy whose troubles with interfering parents and an inquisitive little sister form a background for a hectic love affair. His experiences in taking the measure of the first flirt by whom his fluttering heart is captivated and his embarrassment with his family's failure to meet his romantic social standards, furnish excellent comedy from the first speech to the final curtain.

Mr. Orth has announced that the proceeds of the public performance will be given to the school music department. That department, therefore, is particularly sponsoring the sale of tickets. The cast is being chosen from all classes and as a result the whole school has a personal interest in the coming play. There is a large group of adult friends of the school and of high school dramatics who will read the announcement about the coming performance of "Seventeen" with considerable anticipation.

End Bad Cough Quickly, at One Fourth the Cost
Home-Mixed! No Cooking! Easy!

Millions of housewives have found that, by mixing their own cough medicine, they get a much more effective remedy. They use a recipe which costs only one-fourth as much as ready-made medicine, but which really has no equal for breaking up distressing coughs.

From any drugist, get 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add granulated sugar syrup made up the pint. The syrup is easily made with 2 cups sugar and one cup water, stirred a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. It's no trouble at all to make the most effective remedy that money could buy. Keeps ready for any other cough remedy.

Its quick action in loosening the phlegm, helping clear the air passages, and soothing away the irritation, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy.

Pinex is a concentrated compound of Norway Pine, famous for its soothing effect on throat membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m. October 29, three arrests on charges as follows: Drunkenness and disorderly conduct 1, suspicion 1, and drunkenness 1.

Employees of the WPA yesterday started trimming in paint the city building proper. A coat of gray paint was being applied. As soon as this is done the tin work will be painted red.

Glenn Throop, city engineer, reported today that engineers have completed a survey of North street from East street to the Shenango river. The city plans to widen the thoroughfare 30 inches on each side. It is not known when actual work will start. Probabilities are the project will be laid aside until spring.

Street department has not yet completed the rounding of the southwest corner of Ray street at Croton avenue. When the job is done it will not only enhance the appearance of the corner but will prove a benefit to traffic. The city built concrete curb instead of chasing granite curb. The ground affected was given to the city by Attorney Frank and Mrs. Blanche Hoyer.

Within a short time the new storm sewer, 252 feet long, running south from Dean park beneath Taylor street into a ravine will be completed. Sometime ago a smaller storm sewer was laid but it was not big enough to carry away the water which drains into the park from surrounding hillside streets.

Streets Director B. F. Butler said today that within the near future the city will build a stone wall along a portion of Butler avenue extension. WPA employees will do the work and the city will furnish the material. Sometime ago a wall was started. About 50 feet was built. The work stopped. City Engineer Glenn Throop expects approval of the project and work to start soon.

Rapid progress on the stone wall along Croton avenue hill is being made. If the work continues it will not be long until the wall is entirely built after which the city hopes to find some way of repairing the sidewalk.

Townships Aid Firemen's Ball
Appreciation Shown By Residents Of Outlying Districts For Aid In Past

Among those who are aiding materially with the plans for the Military Ball which will take place here Armistice Day evening, under the auspices of the New Castle paid firemen, are the residents of the surrounding townships, it was stated today by members of the committee in charge of the arrangements for the event.

The township residents are appreciative of the assistance rendered by the New Castle firemen during the past few years in particular, when rural homes have been saved from destruction through the prompt response of the New Castle department to calls for assistance.

They are showing their appreciation by taking tickets to the dance, which promises to be one of the biggest community social affairs held here in some time.

CLAIM SCHULTZ SLAYER KNOWN TO POLICE

Paper Declares Confession Made

"Big Shot" Bronx Racketeer Is Believed To Be Man Concerned

BADLY WOUNDED REPORT ASSERTS

(BULLETIN) (International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A signed confession identifying the slayers of Arthur (Dutch) Schultz, fliegerheimer and his three henchmen in the Palace chop house in Newark last Wednesday is in possession of New York police, according to a copyrighted story appearing today in the New York Daily Mirror.

The man signing the confession is left unnamed in the Mirror's story but he is supposedly a "big shot" Bronx racketeer who himself lies desperately wounded with bullets in his stomach and neck in a city hospital.

The gangster is supposed to have sustained his wounds when one of Schultz's aides returned his fire.

The reason for the mass murders of Schultz and his companions, it is stated, was an attempt by the one-time baron to regain control of lucrative rackets in the Bronx, which he had neglected in the past two years while the government prosecuted him on income tax charges.

ONE OF HOYLAND'S LETTERS to Council

Insisting That Expenditures Must Be Reduced

May 10, 1932.
The Hon. Mayor and Council of the City of New Castle, New Castle, Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen:
I am submitting to you, in order that you may have a record before you, a comparison of the taxes collected by the several departments during the first four months of the years 1930, 1931 and 1932, as follows:

Total collections for April 30, 1930	$349,433.87
Total collections for April 30, 1931	$324,659.68
Total collections for April 30, 1932	$268,299.83
Shrinkage, all departments, 1930 to 1932	$81,134.04

You will note that the collections in 1931 shrunk $24,774.21 from what they were in 1930, and this year they have shrunk $56,359.83 from what they were last year. The shrinkage last year was 7.3%, whereas this year it is 17.3%.

It must be remembered, too, that these collections represent the taxes of those people who have money and are anxious to take the discount. It would be my judgment that the shrinkage will be very much greater in the payments during June, when the great mass of the people usually pay their taxes. I would estimate, therefore, that we will be short $35,000 or $40,000 at the end of the year unless we cut our expenditures now below what is provided for in the budget.

I will report these collections to you each month and would suggest that you keep these reports for comparison.

Respectfully submitted,
ALBERT A. HOYLAND,
Director of Accounts and Finance.

CROTON BAND HOLDS PARTY; TO JOIN PARADE

Croton School Band Holds Masquerade Monday; To Join Mummer's March Tonight, Thursday

One of the happiest events of the Halloween season, was the masquerade party given by members of the Croton school band, numbering thirty-five, on Monday evening at the school house. Goblins, ghosts and numerous weird characters appeared on the scene, decked out in bewitching outfits, for which prizes were awarded for the cleverest and most original.

Duties of playing musical notes, were forgotten on this eve of merry-making, and time was devoted to a period of amusing games and contests. A special feature was a piano solo played by Edward Earl Smith. Following the entertainment, a delicious lunch, served by their teacher and conductress, Miss Ann S. Thomas, with Misses Mildred Sargent, Owen, M. Thomas and Betty Davis, the latter of whom was a former student at Croton.

Special effort has been made this year toward accomplishing one of the finest bands the school has ever known. The students appear at the school house on weeks days at 8 a. m. before sessions take up, to receive instrumental instruction from Miss Thomas. Two mornings a week they have band practice under their director, which has proven interesting as well as beneficial to the band members. This evening this group will parade in the East Side Halloween march, and on Thursday night will form a part of the South Side march. There is but one girl in the band this year.

Included in the lineup will be: Robert Davies, Patty Cimini, LeRoy Downs, Paul Farbel, Louis Gennone, Richard Ginnone, Frank Ginnone, Earl and Mary Alice Kleckner, Lester Malley, Frank Pallott, Clyde Shingler, Adolph Scilla, Merle Johnson, Agnes Testa, Junior Dubrock, Bobby Pyle, Joe Pallott, Edward Earl Smith, Jimmie Ross, Eugene Jacobs, Clarence Panarella, Nick Audia, Dominick Averso, Enzo Rubies, Sam Bonfield, Jimmie Villula, Ben Price, Don Reiber, Merle Zeigler, Earl Black, Lewis Bernabe and Howard Hollingsworth.

CHARLEROI, Pa., Oct. 30.—Man-aced to his hospital bed as a precaution against suicide attempts, John Kuda, 45, was guarded by police today pending arraignment on a charge of slaying his sweetheart, Helen Paskan, 28, of Fayette City.

Kuda shot the girl and then himself as she left the home where she was employed as a domestic because she spurned his love. The girl died in the Charleroi-Monessen hospital last night and District Attorney Wade K. Newell said Kuda will be tried for murder if he survives a bullet which he fired through his eye.

Police guarded Kuda against suicide after finding a fork under his pillow. The guard was increased last night when Miss Paskan's distraught father appeared at the hospital where the girl died 12 hours after an emergency operation for a bullet lodged in her spine.

After shooting the girl and himself, Kuda staggered into the arms of William Gardner, chief of police.

Coal Board Is Cracking Down

Takes Action To Hit Producers Not Under Guffey Act

DECREE ISSUED IN FACE OF COURT TEST

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The national bituminous coal commission today "cracked down" on coal producers who failed to recognize the Guffey Coal Act.

On the basis of an opinion drafted by its counsel, the commission announced that under section 14 of the act only producers who adhere to the Guffey Act can sell bituminous coal to government agencies and railroads carrying the mails.

"The effect of this section appears to be very far reaching and will apply to railroads serving the government in the transportation of mails as well as to firms and individuals contracting with the government for the supplying of materials," the commission said.

The opinion, striking at recalcitrant soft coal producers who refused to respect provisions of the Guffey Coal Control Bill, was issued in the face of a court test by the Carter Coal Company of West Virginia challenging the constitutionality of the act.

Failure to respect the bill would thus deprive many producers of their two most valuable markets, the railroads and the government.

...AT FIRST
Take
LANE'S COLD TABLETS

The railroads alone consume almost one-third of the soft coal produced in the country.

Under the commission's revised NRA plan, the original was killed by the supreme court.

Justice Adkins, of the U. S. Columbia supreme court, was cited today whether the Carter Coal Company should be granted an injunction against the Guffey Act, which becomes effective Friday.

Counsel for the company argued before Justice Adkins the act would result in a huge conspiracy in restraint of trade.

MAN RISKS LIFE TO SAVE DEER

ALTO, Pa., Oct. 30.—T. R. Allio, of Tylersburg, Clarion county, was seriously injured when he wrecked his automobile trying to avoid striking a deer which leaped to the highway opposite Trunkville. The accident occurred on the Allegheny highway, where the woods border the roadway.

Allio, seeing the deer dart into the path of his car, jammed on his brakes and swerved to one side to avoid a collision, but he hit the animal and went over a 25-foot embankment.

He was taken to the hospital, where he is now recovering from his injuries.

He is expected to make a full recovery.

POWERS FOR JUDGE

A housewife knows what it is to have the family dolens packed away in camphor and moth balls, only to find them scattered all over the place, having been dragged forth by the small bad boy of the household. Some such thought as this must have run through Mr. Braham's mind when he was first confronted with Chairman Hazen's unfortunate reference to "Surgeons" and "Architects"—and particularly "Architects," in yesterday's advertisement. Everyone had supposed that the Architect Question had been shunted to the sidetrack until after the election. As though their candidate didn't have enough to worry about! And then Mr. Hazen must shout something about an Architect. It is like the ancient Ghost of murdered Banquo, "It will not down." With nine out of every ten taxpayers, sensitive on the question, the word "Architect" suggests the Architect Case, also known as the Thayer Case. That's the case in which the architect was paid over $7,000 for his work on the plans of our New Court House and in addition to which Mr. Braham is trying to obtain for Mr. Thayer something like twenty-four Thousand Dollars for the hangover.

Why did Mr. Hazen do it? He was getting ready to jump over a mountain. The question he was leading into was: "What kind of a lawyer would one be disposed to hire?" Well, that's an easy question and not so difficult to answer. It all depends on what you want. For example a flock of corporations would want a Corporation Lawyer. They want that kind of a lawyer for a judge too. It's very true there is no foolish sentiment there. They are all for business. It by no means follows that the interest of the rank and file are to be best served by that kind of a choice.

Then, too, Mr. Braham's spokesman, Mr. Hazen, says in reference to Mr. Powers' term as District Attorney; Did he improve his chances? According to Mr. Hazen's standards, he didn't. He is not to be charged with Nepotism. With members of his own family, qualified and needing the work, not a single one of them found employment in or about the District Attorney's office. But while Mr. Hazen was a member of the school board, his own daughter moved into a very fine teaching position in the city, a position which she still holds. This, in view of the fact that there is a small army on the waiting list of competent girls, qualified to teach, could they but have the position. Did he improve his chances? During the Primary campaign Mr. Braham paid high tribute in many of his public utterances to Mr. Powers' competency and ability. Is it their present contentions that these statements were insincere and made for mere political effect?

The reference in the advertisement of last night to the "surgeon" was equally unfortunate, for it is not true, that

Nine Injured In Mine Clash

Miners March On Mines In Kentucky — National Guard On Duty

(International News Service)
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 30.—With nine men injured, two seriously, in two swift raids National Guardsmen and sheriff's men prepared to meet new invasions of union miners which they said were almost sure to come.

At Mannington, where the large mine of the Williams Coal Company has been the scene of many recent disturbances, nine men were shot or burned by tear gas yesterday. Return of the army of 600 who invaded the mine property in an attempt to remove the non-union workers was expected momentarily. About 30 National Guardsmen with machine guns are guarding this mine.

In the southeastern part of the state 250 union miners from adjoining counties and Tennessee marched to the mines of the Mahan-Jellico Coal Company and the Gatlin Coal Company near Williamsburg. They forced the workers away from their jobs, but there was no evidence.

More serious trouble threatened that district today, however. Gov. Ruby Laffan was to appear in Williamsburg and officers feared this might bring a demonstration. Seven men arrested in earlier troubles go on trial and there have been threats of an attempt to free them. Officers of the Mahan-Jellico mine said it would operate today in spite of the threat of leaders of the "army" that resumption of work would mean spilled blood.

Dr. Bennett Tells State Solons His Relief Work Views

Dr. G. S. Bennett, pastor of the First Christian church and former chairman of the state's relief activities locally, testified in Pittsburgh yesterday before a special committee of state representatives and senators which called in a score of Pittsburgh business and industrial leaders "to get the sentiment of men who are or who have been relief officials on present conditions and to formulate a possible future program."

Dr. Bennett was the only non-Pittsburgher called. It was learned today that the joint committee, appointed primarily to investigate the entire relief set-up in the state, is holding two investigations to determine opinions to present to the next session of the legislature. A similar hearing is to be held this week in Philadelphia for the eastern counties. Assemblyman W. J. Eroe, Jr., of this city, is a member of the joint committee. The testimony was taken in private, with reporters being barred.

Ruling Is Made On Guffey Bill

Railroads Carrying Mail Must Buy Coal From Mines Under Control

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The National Bituminous commission, set up to administer the Guffey Coal Act, declared today that railroads carrying the mails must buy their coal from mines complying with the act or lose their mail contracts. A number of railroads mine at least a part of the coal they use, and under the act will have to charge themselves code prices.

The commission's declaration said that under Section 14 of the act, all government departments and agencies must purchase their coal supplies from mines conforming to the code provisions.

Careful Study Made
It said that a "careful study is being made of the Guffey Act, and more particularly of Section 14 which deals with the subjects of bituminous coal purchases being made by departments or agencies of the federal government and also with contracts made by such departments and agencies with contractors for any public work or service."

"In the opinion of counsel for the commission this section of the act is mandatory and gives effect to a policy that purchases of bituminous coal in the cases above mentioned shall be made only from producers who are members of the bituminous coal code."

MILLBURN

GRANGE MEETING

The Millburn grange held its regular bi-monthly meeting at the hall on Friday evening. The program for the lecturer's hour was entertaining and amusing, opening with a questionnaire on farm interests and origin of farm products and articles. It was followed by a series of articles on items of interest concerning farm affairs over the world given by different members. A humorous debate, "Resolved that the farmer should shave every day," with the ladies on the affirmative and the men on the negative side could not be decided, owing to the absence of unprejudiced judges.

Reading on "Respect for Aged" in which the antiquity of the soil was the subject by Mrs. J. P. Hart, and a reading, "Apostrophe to the Mule," by H. W. Johnston, and a game completed the program.

The grange will sponsor a masquerade party for members and their friends on Wednesday, Oct. 30. All those not masked will be fined. Plans for a grange tea were discussed and will be completed later. On Thursday, Nov. 7, Millburn grange will be host to Mercer county Pomona grange at its regular quarterly meeting.

City Projects To Be Started

City Engineer Is Informed Several Are To Be Started Soon

Glenn A. Throop, engineer for the city of New Castle has received from C. P. McGill, project engineer in charge of Lawrence county WPA, a letter in which the procedure for projects was outlined.

The letter stated that several projects requested by the city have been approved but funds have not been released. The funds will be released when the WPA here advises that they are ready to proceed with the work. This has been done.

The projects approved are: Painting street signs, Butler avenue retaining wall, Reynolds street storm sewer, Crawford run rip-rapping and pointing Neshannock creek wall.

The letter says: "It is our responsibility to determine which of these projects can start and notify F. M. Butler, district supervisor, division of labor management, to that effect. We must anticipate the date on which we wish the project to start at least two full weeks in order to allow the district office sufficient time to secure the advice of allotment and assign the workers."

"Mr. Butler will then, after satisfying himself that labor is available for the project, request Harrisburg to release funds for it; at the same time he will advise us that he has notified Harrisburg and directed us to submit to the division of labor management our request for workers."

"We have been advised that they are only releasing funds for projects that actually are going to start. We have assumed that the city desires to go ahead with the above projects and the division of labor management have requested Harrisburg to release the funds for the same."

"TALL STORIES" OF THE POWER CO. EXPOSED

Tall Story No. 1—The Slippery Rock Myth

The Penna. Power Co. are deliberately trying to mislead the public to believe that the city is going to buy a ravine 10 to 15 miles in length, where it will spend $10,000,000 for a hydro plant. Never was anything further from the truth. There is nothing in the bond ordinance about the Slippery Rock property, and no one has ever suggested it or tried to sell it. The only slippery thing about this is that the Power Co. has tried to slip this idea into the public mind to confuse the issue.

Tall Story No. 2—$1,500,000 Is Enough

The Power Co. says that $1,500,000 will not be enough—that the value of their property is $2,466,512.

The answer is that the city will not need and does not propose to buy all the fancy, high-priced properties of the Power Co. The city will not need the following: Transmission system, $647,000; the office building and lands, $153,308—the city can use the City Hall; we can get along without the $16,300 laboratory; also the $27,329 garage—the city has one of its own; also a shop and store—another $5,149; and the "general overhead" expenses of $322,000 need not be included. Moreover $55,000 will be plenty for "working capital". Deduct these unnecessary items and you have $1,233,988 as the total value of the properties the city needs or proposes to buy.

So the $1,500,000 bond issue will be fully enough. And this is verified by the experience of other cities as shown by the studies of the New York Power Authority.

Tall Story No. 3—A Distribution System Only

The Penna. Power Co. are merely a distributing organization. They do not manufacture "juice", or own any large generating equipment. They buy their current wholesale and distribute it. They have only poles, wires, transformers, meters, etc., or what is known as a distribution system.

That is what the city proposes to get—and that is all. There is no generating plant involved.

So, Vote "Yes" for the Bond Issue November 5

Judge Candidate Denies Charges Of Embezzling

(International News Service)
WAYNESBURG, Pa., Oct. 30.—Challen W. Waychoff, Democratic nominee for judge of the county court, today charged that "politics" was responsible for a charge of embezzling $2,500 filed against him by Edward C. Gordon, a client in the settlement of the Thomas R. Crawford estate in Fayette county. Filing of the charge threw the county political situation in turmoil and resulted in a barrage of charges and counter-charges. Waychoff waived hearing and was released in $1,500 bond.

In a formal statement, Waychoff blamed his political opponents for the charge and asserted he was innocent. Winner of a three-cornered fight for the Democratic nomination, he was making his second race for the judgeship in the past 20 years.

Army's Station Here Has Taken Local Youths Afar

The U. S. army recruiting office in the Federal building here reports that in the short period it has been open there have been 23 young men from New Castle and vicinity enlisted for service in either the Panama Canal department or the Hawaiian Islands. Both of these foreign service stations offer the best of opportunities for advancement and education and climatic conditions are ideal.

The Panama Canal zone is under strict sanitary supervision that tropical diseases have been almost completely stamped out. During the dry season there is a constant cool trade wind blowing across the peninsula and in this season most of the trips into the interior are made for purposes of surveying and mapping.

The corps of engineers performs this interesting work while the duties of the other various branches of the service in Panama are connected mostly with protection and defense of the canal. No place has ever been more truthfully termed the "Cross Roads of the World" than old Panama City which was sacked by pirates more than once, and the young men who serve the two-year tour of foreign service in Panama will, before their return, have witnessed sights and events that could be seen nowhere else under the sun.

The Country They See

Five thousand miles farther west lie the Hawaiian Islands. There are five principal islands in the group and many smaller ones. All important fortifications are concentrated on the island of Oahu. The city of Honolulu is also on this, the most important island of the group from a commercial standpoint. Schofield barracks which includes Wheeler field is the largest and most expensive permanent military establishment of any military power in the entire world. There are no "seasons" in Hawaii, which has an average mean temperature of 82 degrees, and it is always summer.

Owing to the limited maneuvering area of the island, which is mostly mountainous, sports and athletics are encouraged as a means of diversion and muscle building and the Hawaiian soldier does everything from hunting wild boars to playing golf, and from deep sea fishing to overbidding a bridge hand. Men stationed in and near the city of Honolulu also have many sports diversions and there is keen rivalry between the Honolulu sector and Schofield stor in football, baseball, boxing and swimming. The beaches around the island are numerous and world famous for their excellence. The famous Waikiki beach in the shadow of towering Diamond Head, an extinct volcano, is said to be the only beach in the world where conditions are ideal for surf-board and out-rigger canoe riding.

BULK OF LOCAL WPA JOBS HELD BY FAMILY MEN

Formed Almost 95 Per Cent Of 2,320 On WPA-Highway Jobs Last Week

An actual count of certified assignments in reports returned to the Federal-State Employment office in the Johnson building today revealed that a total of 2,320 men were employed on the WPA-state highway work program in the district during the week ending October 26, Edward D. Reese, employment supervisor, announced today.

Of this total, Reese pointed out that about 95 per cent are heads of families, and the remaining five per cent representing other eligible workers, most of whom are assuming family responsibilities.

Supervisor Reese said as he made known the figure that it is interesting to note that of the total number of men referred on the state highway projects, only seven per cent failed to report due largely to lack of transportation to job locations.

FRANKLIN HIGH GRIDDERS END UNBEATEN YEAR

Franklin High Football Team Undeclared and Unscored Upon In 1935

Paul Maciarello And Eddie James Tied For Most Number Of Points

EN FRANKLIN Junior High football team has ended another successful football year, with a perfect record of four victories, three ties, and no defeats in seven games. The Franklin team scored a total of 64 points. Paul Maciarello and Eddie James tied for the most points scored 18 apiece.

This was the fourth undefeated season in the past five years, a creditable record and one that the school and coaches can be proud of. In the past six years Ben Franklin has scored three times as many points as the opponents 453 to 148, which is also a very fine record.

Coach Gillespie had as his assistants this year William "Bill" Wallace and George Bender, both very capable assistants and real help in the developing of the winning combination. It was only through the finest kind of cooperation on the part of everyone concerned that the Franklin team could through with flying colors this year.

Five Reserve Material
The following seventh and eighth graders on this year's squad will be eligible to play next year at Franklin High: Tony Moses, Eddie James, Steve Motosko, Eddie Sowinski and Dom Scarazzo from the first team, and the following from the reserve team, many of whom saw enough games to get a letter, Philip Carson, Anthony Cioffi, Ben Cioffi, Danny Drusich, Clayton Kellner, Richard Joseph, Joe Mancine, Felix Mioszewski, Anthony Pagle, Friend Pebbles, Ted Swiatkowski, and Sam Thomas.

Seventeen Get Letters
The following were letter winners of the championship Ben Franklin high football team: ends, Ed Sowinski, and Sam Thomas.

Geneva Prepares For W. & J. Game

Coach Beede Drives Genevians Through Stiff Workouts

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Oct. 30.—Geneva College's highly-touted gridgers are drilling here for their third hard clash in succession, with W. & J. next Saturday at Washington. Several changes in the Covenant lineup have been necessary because of a non-freshman agreement between the two schools.

Nick Garda, experienced senior, will take over Dominic Roselli's duties at quarterback. Garda's career, while not flashy, has many favorable marks upon it. The Beaver Falls boy came to Geneva after prepping at Allentown and was rated as good material. Unluckily for Garda, however, he came to the Covenant school at the time when Art Graham was at his peak.

What games he did see service in he gave good accounts of himself and when Graham departed from Geneva, stepped into the varsity position last year. Now another streak of hard luck for Nick in the form of Dominic Roselli, 130-pound freshman aerial expert, has come to the Geneva campus. This year Garda has capably filled the gaps made when Roselli was taken from several of the contests, continuing the Youngstown boy's aerial campaigns and adding several out-back jaunts of importance.

Baseball Menace To Cricket Game

More Than 200 Teams Competed In National Tourney

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Sports Writer

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Baseball is menacing the popularity of the ancient and languorous English national game of cricket.

This time the menace is proving to be serious, coming as it does at a time when cricket fans are complaining their game is losing all interest and needs new blood.

Union Junior Hi Tops Washington

Unitonies Trample North Hillers 12 To 6 At Union Township Field

Playing an impressive brand of football in every period the Union junior high football team yesterday afternoon took a 12 to 6 upset of the George Washington junior-senior high team.

The Boyden scored in the second and third periods. The touchdowns were made by Guinagh on an 18-yard sprint through the Washingtons, and by Guinagh in the third period on a 10-yard jaunt. The Washington touchdown occurred in the first period and was made by Maloney, the big bone-crusher fullback, who skipped 60 yards thru a broken field for the score.

Pop Warner Turns Down Pro Offer To Play Temple Eleven

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—The challenge of the New York Giants, professional football champions, to meet the undefeated Temple University eleven on November 9, Tuesday was turned down "cold" by Glenn S. "Pop" Warner, Temple coach.

Advised of the Giant's qualified acceptance of his pro-collegiate star charity game, Warner declared, unhesitatingly:

"Such a game would be out of the question entirely. We wouldn't even give it a moment's consideration because we have our college schedule to look after for one thing."

"We purposely left November 9 an open date on our schedule for a breather and certainly would not jeopardize our college record by taking on a pro team at that time."

The situation is causing local school officials considerable concern. They feel that contests of this nature should be waged on the gridiron, and that the fans should refrain from becoming too enthusiastic after the game is ended.

The result of the game should not bring about over-exuberance in case of victory or vindictiveness in case of defeat.

School officials believe that if the better element among the followers of the team will use their efforts to stamp this out that an improvement in conditions will result.

The condition which has come about here is not entirely confined to the fans in New Castle, but has been noted with growing concern by school officials elsewhere, it is stated. It is one which calls for drastic action if it is to be stamped out, they feel.

SERIES CHECKS GIVEN PLAYERS

(International News Service) CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Uncle Sam's mail men will deliver 62 checks worth a total of $59,604.04 to members of the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals today, their reward for being runners-up in their respective leagues in the 1935 pennant races.

Each Cardinal full share was $1,149.09, as against $1,026.38 for the Yankees. The Cards divided their cut into 24 full shares, three halves, and three purses totaling $500 to club house boys. The Yanks cut their mead into 27 full shares, three halves, and divided $550 between two helpers.

COLLEGE GRID LEAVES HOSPITAL

Marcus Kozar, guard on the Westminster college football team, who was removed to the Jameson Memorial hospital for the treatment of injuries to his knee, sustained in the game Saturday with Muskingum, has recovered sufficiently to return to his studies at college.

CATHOLICS TO PLAY

The Catholics football team of the South Side will meet the Shenangoes at the Rosena Furnace field Sunday afternoon, it was announced by Geno "Spotty" Reda, Micalett former Ben Franklin High star will be in the lineup of the Catholics. Domenick "Gaby" DeCaprio is the coach of the Catholics.

COLLEGE GRID NOTES IN BRIEF

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30.—The Carnegie Tech-Duquesne grid encounter this Saturday was rated a toss-up today with an announcement that injured players on both squads will be ready for duty. Co-Captain Steve Terebur, Freddie Lehman and Harry Fryer, all backs, will be in uniform for Tech and Joe Laputka, junior tackle from Hazleton, injured in the Kansas State game, will be back in duty for the Dukes.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 30.—Coach Jock Sutherland and his aides today hoped to have the smoothest working Pitt eleven to date in shape for the battle with Fordham this week. For the first time since the season began, Sutherland has been able to use the same combination all week in practice.

New York, Oct. 30.—With advance sales indicating a 40,000 attendance for the Pitt game, Fordham's gridders took the practice field today to devise ways and means to stop Frank Patrick, Pitt's 190-pound sophomore fullback, and high scorer of the east. Coach Crowley thinks the Rams have "more than just a fighting chance" to upset the Panthers.

New York, Oct. 30.—Columbia's Lions sought to strengthen their aerial defenses today against any surprise passing attack by Cornell. No chances in last week's line-up which faced Michigan, are anticipated, though Oscar Bonom may replace Hudasky at one of the half-back posts.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 30.—A long passing drill was in order for the Princeton squad today in preparation for the Navy contest. Though announcing earlier in the week his squad would engage in no contact work for the rest of the year, Coach Crisler put the Tigers through a long scrimmage yesterday.

Action Of Fans Has Effect On Visiting Teams

High School Athletic Council Having Difficult Time Arranging Schedule

ROWDYISM MAY END RELATIONS

Friendly football rivalry which has existed between the New Castle high school team and the teams of many surrounding cities has been severely strained because of the rowdy tactics of supporters of the New Castle team this year, particularly on visits away from home and may result in the severing of relations with several schools which have been good drawing cards here and away, it was reported today by members of the athletic council at the Senior high school.

Yesterday the principal and coach of the Warren, O. high school were in New Castle to discuss a possibility of entering into another contract for games in New Castle and Warren, the present agreement between the two schools having terminated.

The Warren officials discussed, with seriousness, the situation which has arisen during the past two years among the fans attending the games. They state that they are loathe to enter into another contract unless they can receive some assurance that the fans will cooperate with the school officials in trying to promote clean sportsmanship.

Tactics which were employed following the Warren game were anything but sportsmanlike, the school officials here admit, and conditions which prevailed following the game in Warren a year ago, were not of the best.

This was not only true of the Warren game, but disgraceful scenes were reported following the game at Johnstown.

Unless such actions are brought to an end, high school officials here are afraid that New Castle will not be wanted on the schedules of the better teams in this section of the country.

Up until the last two years New Castle has enjoyed the reputation of being one of the cleanest sporting towns in Pennsylvania or Ohio, but this reputation is dwindling because of the action of followers of the team, not students, who have taken the occasion to indulge in alcoholic sprees and to commit acts which they would not be guilty of if they were sober, as they should be.

The situation is causing local school officials considerable concern. They feel that contests of this nature should be waged on the gridiron, and that the fans should refrain from becoming too enthusiastic after the game is ended.

The result of the game should not bring about over-exuberance in case of victory or vindictiveness in case of defeat.

School officials believe that if the better element among the followers of the team will use their efforts to stamp this out that an improvement in conditions will result.

The condition which has come about here is not entirely confined to the fans in New Castle, but has been noted with growing concern by school officials elsewhere, it is stated. It is one which calls for drastic action if it is to be stamped out, they feel.

Game Commission Welcomes Rain In State On Tuesday

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Oct. 30.—Rain that fell in Pennsylvania Tuesday "pleased" the State game commission—but that was all.

Ernest E. Harwood executive secretary of the commission, declined to comment on the possibility that the recent dry spell might defer the opening of the small game hunting season November 1, would only say:

"We are all very happy to see that it is raining because it may relieve the rather prolonged dry spell. Bird dogs and hounds will work better if the ground is damp. But, understand, we haven't been worried about the lack of rainfall."

Anyway, it looks as if the hunting season will start on schedule in default of anything delaying the opening.

Johnny Buckley Singing Blues About Money Tossed Away

By PAT ROBINSON
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The lads along Broadway today were reminiscing about Ray Bosquet, who was hanged in England yesterday for killing his girl friend.

The Broadway mob recalls him as Del Fontaine. A better than average middleweight, who fought Mike O'Dowd, Augie Ratner and other good boys half a generation ago.

His defense was that he was "punch drunk" and he may have been at that. For he took many a beating, always willing to take a couple to land one. He might have beaten the rap with that plea in this country. But apparently the English don't consider murder a "youthful indiscretion."

Lost Plenty
Fat Johnny Buckley was moaning over the dough temperament Jack Sharkey cost him. "After the first 'schmelling fight,'" wept Johnny, "I had the big Gob booked to broadcast three minutes for $1,500, and he turned it down because he wanted to go right to bed."

Another time I had him slated for 10 weeks on the Keith Circuit at five grand a week. Middle of the first week Mrs. Sharkey was having a friendly chat with Mary Lawlor, a pretty actress, and good-bye to all that dough. How I could use some of it now!

Little Joe Gould shoves off tomorrow with Jim Braddock for a six weeks' tour of the coast. The champ will box exhibitions, and wrestling, and boxing matches, working five nights a week at not less than $1,000 a night.

Football Managers To Meet Thursday

All managers of the independent football teams in New Castle are invited to the N. M. C. A. at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon for completing final plans for the coming football tournament. There are six teams wanting in the tourney at the present time.

Player lists are required Thursday. Drawings will be made for opponents for games to be played this coming Sunday. There is considerable enthusiasm for the football tourney here and large crowds will no doubt attend the various games.

The company the auditorium for the use of the city. The company sent a contract which the city, through Mr. Alexander, said could not be complied with. Eighteen deaths so far this season have been attributed to football, according to P. H. Eastwood, a New York University instructor in education, who compiled information for the American Football Coaches' Association and the National Collegiate A. A.

HOCKEY PLAYERS READY TO START ON 1935 CAMPAIGN

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30.—Although the 1935-1936 schedule of the International Hockey League will not be released until approved at the annual meeting in Buffalo today, it was learned the season will open in Pittsburgh November 7.

The club owners were reported prepared to vote for a split season and division of the eight-team circuit into two sections. The schedule calls for 48 games.

Coach "Bill" Wallace Has One Veteran, Paul Maciarello

CHAMPIONS FOR MANY YEARS

Head Coach William "Bill" Wallace got his first glimpse of the 1935-36 Ben Franklin Junior High basketball material yesterday afternoon at the initial workout of the year. Only one veteran from the championship team last season reported—Paul Maciarello who is the captain for the new year.

Coach Wallace will have as his assistants this year George Bender and Fred McClure. The first game of the year will be on November 26 with the Ben Franklin High faculty team. The game with the Alumni will be held on Thursday night December 5.

Other games on the Ben Franklin floor card this year will be as follows: Butler Junior High, George Washington High, Mahoning Junior High, Ellwood Junior High, Monaca Junior High, Bessemer Reserves, Shenango Reserves, Union Reserves, Stoneboro Reserves, Princeton High, and probably several others.

Green Material
With Captain Paul Maciarello as the nucleus Coach Wallace hopes to mould a winning combination by using the following young men, all of whom had some experience last year on the seventh, eighth and ninth grade teams and on the Little Bens, and Franklin Reserve list.—Ed. Noga, Amen Johns, Socrates Bussby, Tony Moses, Raymond Bombyk, David Greer, Ed. Wenda, Fred Maciarello, Steve Motosko, William Clinefelter, and William Thompson.

Walsh Talks Of De-Emphasis In Football World

Where Has It Gone?, Seems To Be Biggest Question Of Hour

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Being an artless fellow with a deep appreciation of beauty, I'm without resistance against a field of crocus — crocuses? croci? crocae? — anyhow, the neighbors' flower beds make an awful sucker out of me. As a matter of fact, I don't know what I do without my hob nails and the crunching when honest folk are sleeping it off, which doubtless accounts for the fact that I now want to know what has become of de-emphasis among college football teams around here.

There was and is Pennsylvania, for example. It has the Gates plan, but surely that can't be plural. It must be the singular of the Gates plan, with its ball team scoring 101 points against major opposition in its last two games. Probably I have that wrong. The Gates plan is still working very nicely, they tell me, only they have found it necessary to make a few unimportant changes. Maybe the hinges work inward now.

Are Quite Big
There was and is New York University. Last year, its freshman team was undefeated. Probably it's only a coincidence, but this year the varsity is undefeated. Meanwhile, I saw the 1935 freshmen against Milford school and all they have is about forty young men between 185 and 230 pounds. I presume that they all got that way from totting text books from one classroom to another.

There is another institution or joint, not far away which previously had declared for righteousness on the football field and now is carrying the matter to an extreme, only I mean the other way. It won't give its freshmen scholars-hips. They have to earn them first in freshman football.

Freshies Good
They tell me, too, that Lafayette, once quite a football institution but more recently a football jest, has thirty freshmen who are better than anyone on the varsity and that Dobie, up at Cornell, is wishing that everybody would become confused one of these Saturdays and make a terrible mistake by using the varsity suits to his freshmen—and vice versa.

Georgetown, which underwent a conscious reaction after the depart-ture of Lou Little, now seems to be undergoing another. Its freshman teams of the last two years have been better than good, with the result that its 1935 varsity almost beat N. Y. U. last week. Penn State, too, went all the way to the same afternoon before it was licked by Pittsburgh while Carnegie Tech, which was supposed to be undergoing something, suddenly rose up and overpowered Purdue, previously undefeated.

BEE INSPECTOR

MAY GET STUNG

FRANKLIN, Pa., Oct. 30.—A state bee inspector must answer to the term of November court for "wilfully and maliciously" destroying five hives of bees belonging to William C. Keas of near Coopers-town, following a hearing today before Alderman Robert A. Fry.

The man is Allen Fleming, of Corsica, who declared he was acting under the state law allowing him to destroy bees which he finds diseased.

Personals

An ad inserted under the "Personal" heading differs from other classifications much the same as a person-to-person telephone call differs from a station-to-station connection.

Business and professional men who have some special message for clients often make use of this column. The ad inserted by a prospective traveler who desires a companion to share expenses to some given point is familiar to every one. People desiring to get in touch with missing friends and relatives also make use of this classification.

Don't overlook the possibilities of this useful division of the classified ads.

Buying Wave In Utilities
Strengthens Stock Market Today

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—A buying wave in utilities strengthened the stock market today. Upturn in power shares sent a number including North American at new highs for the year. Dealing in some issues as United Corp. were on a huge scale.

The rest of the list turned around in sympathy and a flurry of buying sent the ticket a minute behind before the end of the first hour.

Rail equipments, led by Pullman, responding to the Pennsylvania's announcement of a big car building program. Electrical equipments were strong, while Case Threshing ran up around 2 points in farm implements. Coppers were better and rails mixed.

Steels were weighed down by the larger U. S. Steel loss in the third quarter.

Motors sagged, while aviation was weak led by Boeing, down more than a point. Schenley was strong in the liquor. Amerasia hit a new high in the oils.

Annual Celebration To Take Place In Ellwood City
Tomorrow Night

MUMMERS TO PARADE
THROUGH STREETS

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 30.—Arrangements are complete for a bigger and better Hallowe'en celebration in Ellwood City which will take place tomorrow night. General Chairman Paul Reynolds and his many active committees have worked hard and have some promising results for their efforts.

Nothing has been spared in making this one of the most memorable celebrations ever held in the city. The merchants have donated prizes galore which will be awarded by judges to the lucky persons.

The parade is expected to begin forming in the fourth ward around 7 p. m. tomorrow and then will march towards town. Committees will see that each person participating will be in the proper groups. This will make the judging easier, which will be done along the route of the parade.

The parade will feature three bands—the American Legion Bugle and Drum corps, Ellwood City high school band and the Italian band. Each will have a section of the parade to lead. Besides the various mummery section there will be a float division. Thousands are expected to line the street to view the annual event.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 30.—"Great-est" "best" "there are some of the superlatives followers of Chester H. are benevolently showering on the Blue and Gray clad grid-ders this year and while such adulation might seem exaggerated to neutral observers, a study of the school's record will show these rooters know whereof they speak.

Chester smote all six opponents that dared cloud its vision of the pending suburban championship with such effectiveness that its own goal line was never endangered.

Enthusiasm Is Shown At Special Meeting As Campaign Gets Under Way

WILL RE-ENLIST OLD MEMBERS FIRST

Under the direction of Senior Vice Commander Dave Tobin, the campaign started off with more enthusiasm than has been shown in some time, and indications point to the post having a majority of last year's members enrolled before Thanksgiving, which will give the post a good start on membership honors for another year.

Aiding Senior Vice Commander

Tobin in the membership effort, are: James C. Brice, A. L. Conn, Guy J. Wadlinger, Walter Dietterle, Tom Edmunds, Clarence S. Jarrett, R. Loy Boyd, Ches. Sweeney, Ivor M. Richards, Harold Blewitt, Earl Moffatt, Leo Strizzi, Norman P. Nelson, Dr. Hyman Frank, Henry Budzowski, Orville Potter, Speer Marousis, and Chris Walker.

In addition to the membership drive, plans were discussed for the participation of the post in the Armistice Day activities on November 11. The post will have a float in the parade and most of the members will march in the procession.

Senator Davis Sees Trend Back To Republicans

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—An eastern senator, James J. Davis, of Pennsylvania, today offered to join Senator Borah (R) of Idaho, in making monopoly one of the big issues in the Republican presidential campaign of 1936.

Davis proposed to couple a drive against monopoly with a ringing demand for economy in government. The two, he said, should form the spearhead of the campaign against the Roosevelt administration.

After trips to several states, Davis asserted that a distinct trend back to the Republican party is evident.

"The Republicans have got to take a stand on monopoly," said Davis. "Monopoly and economy in government: should be the issues of the party next year. I agree with senator Borah on the question of monopoly. It is an issue which cannot be dodged, and is an issue which affects everyone in the nation."

The couple said they were told that childless couples could not receive relief. They kept children's toys about when investigators called and each time convinced the relief employees that the kiddies were out playing. Later the couple was exposed.
